Session One 11 am-12 pm 1 contact hour	Keynote: Self-Awareness/Other-Awareness/Team-Culture Awareness: The MUST-HAVEs to Create Greater Harmony, Fun, and Lasting Success Jeanne Malnati, MSW, LCSW Description: It’s a fact: Healthy team dynamics/relationships do not come naturally or easily. They take intentionality, authenticity, and a willingness to put your defensive stance aside. Learn relational leadership principles and interpersonal communication tools that are proven to create a unified workplace culture where individuals consistently feel cared for, trusted, and respected. Objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Learn an experiential tool to identify your relational blind spots and how to then give that “gift” of feedback to others. 2. Learn 3 simple yet powerful communication tools to enable yourself and team members to openly speak their mind and express their feelings. 3. Learn how to lead culture-strengthening Communication Circles, including guidelines to address conflicts that lead to deeper connection.
12 pm – 12:30 pm	Break for Lunch
Session Two 12:30 pm – 1:30 pm 1 contact hour	Title: Catalyzing Youth Voice and Digital Empathy through using “My View” in Summer Camps. Barry Garst, PhD John Hamilton, MA Description: This summer ACH collaborated with Tickit Health to pilot My View in a sample of summer camps. This session examines what was learned through the project, with an emphasis on how camps used My View to give youth a voice to express their needs and interests toward the goal of improving care during camp. Objectives:
